IMAGINE... by Danny Couch

“Spiritual growth is the process of a believer being transformed into the image of Christ”

When Jesus returned to his followers after his death and resurrection, he shared these final words: “Go, therefore, and make Disciples...” To the Jesus followers we are told/commissioned/commanded to make more followers of Jesus.

For that last 60 plus years, the church has slowly gotten out of the “Making Disciples” mode. We have been criticized of altering the Great Commission of Jesus to say: “Sit here and wait, therefore, for followers of other churches to visit your church...”

“Making Disciples”, as Jesus commissions, is as foreign to us as “Making Butter”. We prefer the “all-ready made and processed” version. So as church attendance and followers of Jesus decline at a rapid pace, the need to “make disciples” has become increasingly critical. But how do we do that when have become so inclined to taking care of the 99 sheep and not worry about the 1 (or 99,000) who is (are) lost.

How do we revert back to our Biblical disciple making ways? It starts with those of us reading this article. We need to recapture the spirit of Jesus Christ and renew our hearts and minds. We need not be satisfied with being a “church member” but be continually committed to growing into the image of Jesus Christ.

- Imagine your life's journey and purpose evolving into the joy of being the very person God designed your life to be.
- Imagine how exciting the church would be if all us moved from being a member of a church to becoming a mature follower of Christ!
- Imagine how dynamic the church would be in the community if the church was no longer just busy, but alive with ministries that make a difference to the lost!

We would no longer be a church of 400 that worships 200. We would be a church of 400 that worships 500 because we couldn't wait to be in the House of God and we would bring friends and family with us so they could discover the joy we have found!

Imagine what that would look/feel like...NOW...let's make it happen!
