A New Beginning...

By Danny Couch

The idea of entering into ministry as a vocation entered my mind during my senior year in High School. I talked through this possibility with my minister (whom I was living with, at the time) and he didn't think I was crazy. During my sophomore year at TCU, I concluded that the church was best possible way to impact people's lives if done the way Christ envisioned his body to operate.

However, I lacked confidence, direction, and experience so I entered into a Summer Intern Ministry.

- In the summer of 1983, First Christian Church in Victoria, Texas hired me to be their youth minister. It was an enjoyable experience.
- In the next summer of 1984, I was hired by my home church in Sugar Land and was given an expanded role. I enjoyed that as well.
- After my senior year at TCU in 1985, I went to FCC in Tampa, Florida where I was fed to the wolves and given every responsibility given to a senior minister. It was interesting, challenging, and rewarding. I quickly learned my strengths and weaknesses, but also the received the confirmation that this was the direction God was leading me.

Those three years were vital for me to understand whether or not God was directing me toward ministry as a vocation. As a result, I enrolled at Brite Divinity School and the rest is history.

Over 30 years later, I now find myself on the other end of the spectrum as a young man name Remy Tercero is seeking an up close and personal understanding of ministry. Is this where God is leading him? This summer will provide many answers as we welcome Remy in our Summer Intern.

On May 22nd we will welcome Remy in Worship and he will learn from us about what this church and Christ's ministry is all about. If you want to learn more about the summer intern position and Remy follow the links to the website. Help us welcome Remy into the life of the church and help him understand his role in God's world! Thank you for what you do!!
